THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE MELCOLANHAMS GROUP

COMING TO VEGAS?

The Team here at MelcoLanham's has just announced that we will be hosting a special 'Builders Study Tour' to Fabulous Las Vegas.

MelcoLanham's will be hosting a group of Customers and other Industry Personnel visiting Las Vegas to attend the 2010 International Home Builders Show (IBS). In 2009, despite the challenging state of the economy, over 60,000 building industry professionals attended the 65th annual IBS. With 1,600 exhibiting companies and over 250 education sessions, IBS continues to be the building industry's premiere event. To find out more information about the International Builders Show check out the website at www.buildersshow.com

This trip has been organised after a number of requests from MelcoLanham's customers and the proposed date for the trip is departing Brisbane on the 17th January, returning on Sunday January 24th 2010.

If you are interested in attending the trip, please don't hesitate to contact your Sales Rep or email Kate Dunn in our Marketing Department at kated@melco.com.au to find out further details. Once you have registered your interest, we will keep you updated as the planning of the trip comes together & will also be holding information sessions in the near future.

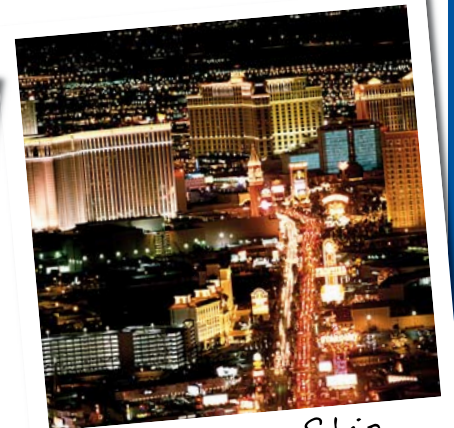

This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to visit the Fabulous Las Vegas as part of an organised tour and our team of people will make sure that it is a most memorable experience!

SPRING INTO THE GARDEN

This year MelcoLanham's in partnership with Makita attended the 25th annual Queensland Home Garden Expo. The Expo ran for three days, from Friday July 10 to Sunday July 12, 2009 at the Nambour Showgrounds, Nambour.

Every year, over 25,000 garden lovers, including hundreds of horticulture professionals, flock to the Expo - one of the Queensland's largest and most celebrated gardening events.

Celebrating 25 years of gardening magic the 2009 Queensland Home Garden Expo invited both gardening enthusiasts and novices to be inspired by the fantastic displays and get first hand information on how to transform their backyard. A tropical resort style garden, a waterwise garden, or a sustainable garden that provides fresh produce for the family, or a combination of all them, was easily achievable with the expert advice and information available at the expo.

The expo featured tantalizing offerings from more than 360 exhibitors - the latest in garden tools, pots, books, accessories, garden art and more.

Makita were showcasing their new range of Makita Outdoor Power Equipment featuring the new MM4 4 stroke system which makes the equipment run much smoother and cleaner. We also had a sample of the BRAND NEW Fire Fighting pump on display, 4 Stroke Brushcutters, Blower Vacs along with the standard 2 stroke range which we have had great success with for many seasons.

We were fortunate to have two Makita representatives ONSITE over the 3 days and all went really well. If you have not yet experienced or seen the Makita Outdoor Power Equipment range it is definitely worthwhile checking out. With Father's Day just around the corner, it's a good time to upgrade as we are coming into the gardening season.

For more information, just see one of our experienced staff at our Home & Trade stores to give you the rundown

THE SHACK'S BEEN REBORN...AGAIN!

The Shack was born in the year 2002, it was to answer the need and the concerns of many community members for the youth of their much loved Nambour.

It soon became well established as a vital thread in the fabric of Nambour and district, to the point that many people got on board with the vision of The Shack

18 months after the doors opened, The Shack became a victim of the important growth of our town and was demolished to make way for a new shopping centre. For the next 16 months we maintained a close relationship with the families and the young people we had come to love and enjoy.

In April or 2004 a family co-op who had become aware of The Shack and its need for premises, opened its heart and its doors to unused squash courts, right in the centre of town and presented them to The Shack. With the help of some 100 young people and various community groups, The Shack again rose from the ashes and recommenced its vision for the community. MelcoLanham's have also & will continue to play a vital role in the survival and development of The Shack.

Earlier this year The Shack was REBORN again, given a MAJOR facelift and featured on Channel 9's TV Show 'Random Acts of Kindness' hosted by Scott Cam. Thanks to the volunteers & various businesses throughout the community donating their goods & services The Shack received extensive renovations including a new kitchen, high tech security system & brand new furniture throughout.

If you didn't get to see this episode of Random Acts of Kindness, contact Kate Dunn on 5441 9904 to receive a copy.

A well deserved facelift!
