Cucina esclusiva notte

(Translation: Exclusive Cooking Night)

This is an exciting year for MelcoLanham's Account Holders, as we will be holding a number of Exclusive Cooking Nights & Events throughout the year.

ILVE Cooking Nights consist of our ILVE representative, Lyn Michelle demonstrating the latest innovative cooking ideas & techniques. In previous years, we have held themed nights including Thai, Chinese & Italian cuisines. Our latest was called 'Get Lost In the Moment' & included mouth watering recipes and tastings to inspire for the 'festive' season.

We've received FANTASTIC feedback from our attendees. Thank you all for such an entertaining and informative evening! We learnt a lot, ate a lot and enjoyed your hospitality immensely. We will be recommending future cooking demonstrations to everyone we know. Judith & Wendy.

Our next Exclusive Cooking Night will be held in Noosa & will be an Italian themed evening consisting of many recipes from this beautiful country!

If this sounds like an event you may be interested in, simply email your name, address & contact number to Kate Dunn kated@melco.com.au or phone 5455 9812 to register an expression of interest and receive an EXCLUSIVE invite to our next Cooking Night.

MEN OF LEAGUE...

MelcoLanham's are always proud to support the Men Of League Foundation. At a recent luncheon held on May 25th at Maroochy Surf Club, the Men of League raised a huge $18,000! The primary objective of Men of League is to support former players, coaches, administrators, referees, officials and their families who have fallen on hard times.

Special Guest, Former Queensland State of Origin coach Graham Lowe spoke at the luncheon of how his two years at the helm of the Maroons was his rugby league pride and joy. Lowe, now CEO of the Manly Sea Eagles, says being invited to coach Queensland was an honour he never expected and would more than likely never happen again for an 'outsider'.

Among the other well-known guests were legendary Gladiator and Sunshine Coast patron Norm Provan, former internationals Bob Hagan (Sunshine Coast president) and Lew Platz and ex-Queensland interstate players John Bourke, Reg Cannon, Len Dittmar and our very own Ian Dauth. Both Bourke and Dauth are Sunshine Coast committee members.
